Tennessee Code Annotated, Sections 62-13-303 and 312 provide in part that the Commission may deny a license to an applicant who has a prior criminal conviction(s) and/or a disciplinary sanction(s) imposed by an occupational licensing body.

Have you taken the exam for licensure? Yes No (If yes, see a, if no, see b)

- a. You must answer all parts to this questionnaire and submit all required documentation. One of the letters of reference needs to be from your Principal Broker, on company letterhead, and must respond to all the questions on the Letter of Recommendation Form attached. If it is determined that you need to appear before the Commission, your Principal Broker will need to accompany you. You will be contacted to schedule an appearance.
- b. You must answer all parts to this questionnaire and submit all required documentation. Because of the time and expense involved in becoming an applicant for licensure, the Commission affords an individual who has not yet become an applicant the opportunity to request that the Commission make a preliminary decision on the conviction(s) or the prior disciplinary sanction(s) before the individual takes the required education and examination for license. The purpose of a preliminary decision is merely to provide advisory guidance. However, the Commission may elect to allow a favorable preliminary decision to become its final decision without further investigation or hearing when the individual becomes an applicant for licensure.

SECTION B REQUIRED ATTACHMENTS:

1. An individual seeking a preliminary decision must submit to the Commission a copy of any indictment and conviction or a disciplinary sanction imposed by another licensing regulatory authority. It must show the exact charge, judgment rendered, and end of any probationary period. If the court disposition is unavailable, you must provide a letter from the court stating that the documents are not available. An individual may also provide the Commission with any additional information that the individual believes may assist the Commission in rendering a preliminary decision.
2. Letters from three character references not related to you by birth or marriage. (See attached form) (If a broker has agreed to hold your license, one of the three letters must be from that broker.) Their letters should indicate (a) whether they are aware of your prior conviction or disciplinary action; (b) how long they have known you (c) how they know you (as a teacher, friend, work colleague, etc); (d) that they understand that you may be handling other people's money, may have access to confidential information, and may have access to other people's property; and (e) their estimation of your current reputation in the community. (Use a copy of attached Letter of Recommendation Form; or place on references letterhead and use format of form.)

The Commission cannot begin its processing of your application until it receives all of the above items. The Commission will notify you of its decision when its investigative process is completed.
